Day 1 Colored River and Orion's Gate

Hosting the red aquatic plant Macarenia clavigera, this colored river is a perfect site for walking, nature contemplation and photography. There are also spots for bathing along the way. Orion's Gate is an important rock formation in La Lindosa Plateau, symbol of Guaviare province.

Day 2 Cerro Azul

The largest complex of paleolithic rock art in the region with painted walls dated back up to 12.000 years. Follow the adventure in the darkness through a 680 ft cave and enjoy a magnificent view over the jungle. 2,5 mi trail.

Day 3 Natural Swimming Holes

1,25 mi hike among crystal waters, cracks on the riverbed, short waterfalls and natural swimming holes more than 10 ft-deep to take a refreshing bath.

If facing unpredictable weather changes, we may swift this trail with an excursion to Laguna Negra or to Natural Tunnels Reserve.
